When your friends at home send in your friends abroad a copy of the Thanksgiving number of The Ledger, don't you think your friends abroad will be disappointed if they do not find your card in it? It will cost you only $2 to have a nice card inserted, and the money will be spent here at home, and the chances are that you'll get it back, with a good deal more to boot.

It has been suggested that the new Opera-house be chartered with a home enterprise. It will be finished and ready, when all the good attractions are "booked," and the chances of getting a first-class professional company will be slim. Maysville can furnish enough home talent—dramatic and musical—to provide a most enjoyable evening; and as the house has been built by home people, it will be quite fitting to open it with a home company. This Ledger will be pleased to bear expression from our citizens, pro and con.

His Honor Judge Rehwab of the Cincinnati Police Court is coming up this week to join his Honor Judge Walker of the Maysville Police Court in a few days hunt.

And when the Judges bring their guns To bear upon the snail,

APPROACHING NUPTIALS.

A Maysville Man Seen to Wed a Former Louisville Lady.

The marriage of Mr. Joseph Baron Blatterman to Miss Anna Beccot will be an event of Thursday, December 31st.

The bride was raised in Louisville, but has recently made her home with a sister, Mrs. McDonald, of Florida.

The marriage ceremony will occur at Gramede, the plantation home of the McDonalds, situated near near Orlando.

The witnesses will be relatives and intimate friends and the ceremony will end with the Presbyterian rite, to which faith both bride and groom belong.

The wedding journey will consume a week, after which Mr. and Mrs. Blatterman will come to Maysville to reside with Mr. and Mrs. George W. Blatterman of West Fourth street.

UNEXPECTED WEDDING.

Judge A. R. Cole of this City Married to a Central Kentucky Lady.

A wedding which will come in the nature of a surprise occurred a day or so since, in which a prominent Maysville gentleman was a central figure.

Mr. Allan J. Cole Saturday received a telegram announcing the marriage of his father, Judge A. R. Cole, to Mrs. Belle Newman, formerly of Louisville.

The family and friends of Mr. Cole were not aware of his intentions when he left home a few days ago, and beyond the brief telegram stating that he was married and would arrive with Mrs. Cole at his home in this city to tonight, nothing is known of the event.

The groom is one of the ablest lawyers in this section of the state, prominent not only in Maysville but in surrounding cities where he has a large practice, and The Ledger with his best friends, tenders on this happy occasion most sincere congratulations.

LETTER CHAIN.

Supply a Link to Buy a Piano For the New Opera House.

The Ledger is requested to ask those persons of our city who have received letters which form the chain, the proceeds of which are to buy a piano for the Opera-house, to respond with promptness, either sending the money requested or to notify Miss Blatterman, treasurer of the fund, of their unwillingness to contribute so the links may be supplied and the chain continued to its completion.

It is a small amount and can easily be given by each person from whom the favor is asked. Do not longer defer but respond, as the instrument is to be purchased and placed for the opening night.

TURKEY TRAINS.

Seven Carloads of Thanksgiving Turkeys From Bluegrass Towns.

The first turkey train of the season sent from the Bluegrass to the Eastern markets was in the field, though the track lay in Bourbon and Louisville.

It contained seven cars and was made up of several shipments from Paris, Maysville, Carlisle, Flemingsburg, Winchester and Augusta.

Several more trains may be sent out from Bourbon before Thanksgiving.

Turkeys are selling at 6 cents per pound on the farm, though the turkey crop in Bourbon is larger than it has been for many years.

A carload lot was shipped from this city last week by freight train, and will follow this week, shipment being made by Colonel John Y. Dean of the Maysville Produce Co. and by Mr. Everett Brightman.

Thanksgiving Nine Days Distant?

Oh, no! Thanksgiving is right here. Textile Thanksgiving is holding court in our market and on our counters. The Thanksgiving Table is set. Table Damask, Table Covers, Napkins and Dishes are posing for your admiration.

Some dainty confections for Christmas gifts. None too soon to prepare, better now while things are fresh. These beauty-bits are easy to buy away. Small dishes 25c, 35c; large ones 45c and 55c. Higher priced ones, too.

Bargains! Don't think the less of the Gloves. It's Thanksgiving selling. We have the best dollar Gloves that money can buy. That's putting it strong, but we're very earnest in this Kid Glove matter. Better gloves for $1 there are none. Glove art reaches its highest possibility in the Fedora. Two, clasp, embroidered backs, black, white, colors.

$5, $7, $8 and $10 do large duty in wrap buying this fall. There is service and style in the garments, too. Just a descriptive word to set you thinking: $5 Covert Cloth Jackets, the new Crede style, notched collar, tailor back, flap pockets, lined with satin rudeness. Match them elsewhere for $7. $8 $9 the new Badler Short Coat, out after a late London model—a coat to win approving looks from feminine admirers.

Lowness of price is only one factor, highness of quality and general rightness is equally important. These lots are worthy bargains from every standpoint.

50c quality $2.00; 65c quality $3.00; 75c quality $4.00. Of pure wool and from a mill that keeps it standard at highest notch. These goods are drossy, yet they'll stand the wear and tear of knobbyout use.

D. HUNT & SON.

THE BEE HIVE. A Feast of Bargains FOR THANKSGIVING WEEK!

If selling trustworthy merchandise at prices much lower than ever known before is any reason for your "giving thanks," you'll find luncheon-table causes for gratitude at our store from now until Thanksgiving Day. It will be expensive for us, but we'll make better friends of you.

Give THANKS FOR THESE.

Four choice of our entire line of Calicoes, over 700 bolts, including: Fancy Prints, Best Bines, Turkey Reds, Black and White, Silver Gray, Comfort Calicoes. Every piece guaranteed "full standard," and never sold under $c. to 50c a yard. Our Thanksgiving price 4c a yard. Simpson's Solid Black Prints 31c a yard. Other prints 31c a yard. Remember, the above bargain price ends on Thanksgiving Day.

BLANKETS AND COMFORTS.

Prices are cut to make you thankful. A great 10-4 Blanket in white or gray, 99c a pair. A very superior Blanket, worth fully $1, at 79c a pair. Our special price breaker is a 11-4 Blanket of ordinary $3 value, our price $1.35. Compare retail in price from 29c. to $2. We warrant prices at least 30 per cent. below others.

BUY YOUR TURKEYS.

From the savings you can make in our CLOAK DEPARTMENT. Our Cloak business has been immense. These prices will tell you why: Superior Cloth Caps trimmed with braid and ornamental buckle at 60c, 80c and $1.19. A double Kersey Cloth Cape and a beautiful Bonnet Cape, both trimmed with fur, would be cheap at $3.75, our price $1.98. Our Ladies' and Misses' Jackets at $4.00 outwit all competition. And those Infant Cloaks at 99c are eagerly purchased by thankful and prudent mothers.

MISCELLANEOUS THANKSGIVING SUGGESTIONS.
